SUPPLIER PARTICIPANTS: Supplier agrees to bring a senior level executive with contractual authority to the Event. Meals, additional accommodations, catering, shipping, and ancillary activities, etc. are the responsibility of the Supplier.

PTX SERVICES ProcessTechnologyXchange, LLC ("PTX") agrees to arrange matches between Supplier and senior executives of companies ("Teams") with budgeted initiatives in the Supplier's solution area(s) and who have expressed an interest and willingness to meet with Suppliers at PTX. The sole obligation of PTX with respect to making matches is to provide to Supplier a list of names and contact information for such Teams, access to PTX's Xtranet prior to the Event and assurance that the Teams will attend the meetings at PTX. It is Supplier's obligation to communicate with these Teams to discuss an agenda for each of the meetings at the Event. PTX shall be deemed to have met its obligation if it arranges the required number of matches. If there is any dispute as to whether a match was made, the match shall be considered to have been made when the senior executive(s) of the company having an interest in Supplier's solution area(s) want to meet Supplier, the editor of Business News Publishing Company confirms this interest, and Supplier has been provided the contact information for the Teams. There will be no changes made to schedules within 30 days of the Event.

If PTX fails to provide Supplier with the minimum number of matches set forth in Section 1 of the face of this Agreement, its sole obligation to Supplier shall be, at its option, to either (i) refund to Supplier a pro-rated fee based on the package Supplier purchased for each match not provided to Supplier, or for each Team that does not participate in a pre-arranged meeting (unless the Team's participation is caused by the action or inaction of Supplier), or (ii) cancel Supplier's participation in the Event and refund all amounts paid by Supplier to PTX as set forth in Section 1. However, if PTX cannot secure a minimum of three matches for Supplier, then at Supplier's request, PTX will cancel Supplier's participation in the Event, and provide a full refund within 30 days following the Supplier's request. PTX shall not be liable to Supplier for any lost profits, consequential or punitive damages.

SUPPLIER OBLIGATIONS Supplier acknowledges that once Supplier has agreed to participate in the Event, PTX and companies having an interest in Supplier's solution area(s) will be relying upon such participation in making arrangements with respect to the Event. Supplier therefore agrees to use its best efforts to follow through with all matches made by PTX and to communicate with such Teams, establish meeting agendas with such Teams, and attend the Event. If for any reason Supplier fails to do so, Supplier shall not be entitled to any refund of any amounts paid to PTX under this Agreement. Supplier further acknowledges that if Supplier schedules a meeting with any Team, and subsequently fails to attend the Event, such failure will cause damage to PTX and to the Teams. Supplier acknowledges that such damages are not easily ascertainable, and Supplier agrees that if it fails for any reason to attend the Event after scheduling such meetings, then in addition to forfeiting all payments made under this Agreement, Supplier will be liable to PTX for liquidated damages in an amount equal to the amount set forth in Section 1 on the face of this contract, and shall pay such additional amount to PTX within 10 days following demand by PTX.
